VISIT TO THE "FIELDS OF BARLEY"...

Sweden is known for the purity of its air, for the quality of its products and for the health-minded attitude of its inhabitants. Recently two senior G&G executives travelled to Sweden to look at the sources of organic barley. Barley's high protein content has been recognized centuries ago: after all the Romans gave it to their gladiators and soldiers as their main source of protein, carbohydrates and general nutrition. Barley's main quality is that it is very easy to assimilate by the body. G&G are now able to add a very exciting new product to health supplements or energy-type powder blends: ORGANIC PRE-SPROUTED BARLEY, FULLY CERTIFIED BY THE SOIL ASSOCIATION.

Don't be left out -- be the first to sell this revolutionary product under your own label!
